

I respectfully ask that you not interfere with my ability to receive weather and traffic information over my XM Radio receiver. This works wonderfully for me and no matter where I travel the convenience of being able to find accurate info at any time is a valuable service. The fees I pay are minimal and I do so gladly on two separate vehicles.